Refugee Services Office

Refugees are people who fled their countries and are unable to return due to persecution based on religion, race, nationality, political opinion or membership in a particular social group.

Refugees are legally authorized to work in the United States the day they arrive, no work visas required.

Refugees have:

- Strong work ethics
- Positive attitudes
- Solid skills/work history
- Better retention rates
- Various workplace and bilingual skills

Refugees are:

- Eager to work and highly adaptable
- Skilled and/or quick learners
- Dependable and loyal
